

Educational Theatre Project

At St. John Vianney High School

“ A chance to learn about musical theatre by being a part of the cast. ”

For students ages 6 thru 18.

Explore the acting process from auditions to final curtain call.

While rehearsing a full-scale production, learn stage movement, dance, dialogue, character and scene development

Directed by award-winning professionals with over 25 years of educational theatre experience.

Rehearsals: Two evenings a week and Saturday mornings.

Be a part of a winning team that leaves time for school, homework, etc.

Meet new friends that share the same interests.

Compare the cost to other programs.

Develop self confidence and stage presence.

See our website for audition information

Playhouse Productions

Educational Theatre Project

Playhouse Productions, Inc. Staff
Al G. Book-Director
Sandy Book-Choreographer
Lana Richard-Musical Director

Playhouse Productions, Inc.
may be reached at 314-832-8584
PlayhouseProductions.org

ANTHONY GRANDA PHOTOGRAPHY

At St. John Vianney High School

Playhouse Productions' mission is to provide a professional training ground for actors
while providing quality performances to audiences at a nominal cost.

